PLAINTIFF’S MOTION FOR SEPARATE AND FINAL JUDGMENT

Now comes Plaintiff, Stephen Powell (Plaintiff) in this action, and pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54 (b), respectfully moves for separate and final judgment on all claims tried in this matter from October 14, 2025 to October 31, 2025. As grounds, a verdict entered in this matter on October 31, 2025¹, and Plaintiff seeks to enter final judgment on that verdict. Plaintiff seeks payment from Defendants on said verdict within 30 days of such order. Plaintiff is filing a separate motion for fees and costs, and for pre- and post-judgment interest on this award. While Defendants may object as a result of the severance of the claims against Peebles from the prior trial, parties can seek to stay the matter in the appellate court, if even needed, from this trial, to bring the appellate issues together for purposes of appeal at a later date. There is no just reason to delay the separate and final judgment in this matter, and Plaintiff respectfully seeks that said order enter with all due speed.

Wherefore, Plaintiff respectfully moves for separate and final judgment.

¹ The claims against Leroy Peebles were severed from this trial. That trial date has not yet been set.

Respectfully Submitted,
Plaintiff, Stephen Powell,
By his Attorneys,
